President's Message

As my first President's Message to The Buff, I wish you all Happy New Year. My wish for 2011 is a bridge community that thrives on fun events, inviting competition for all levels of players and satisfaction for each person as they move forward in their expectations of this intriguing game. Your unit board will try to help you out on the first two wishes but you are definitely on your own for wish number three. Good Luck!!

We, your unit board, have planned many events for your enjoyment. A Unit event is planned for each month with our first sectional 'already under our belts'. Three more sectionals are planned with one of them being for non-life masters. In addition, there are Unit Run games featuring Pro-Am, Knock-Outs as well as Pairs. See the schedule in The Buff and on our website: Unit 116.com. More events will be firmed up and added in the next month – so keep watching and mark your calendars.

You are urged to attend these Unit functions, always great food and a chance to meet up with players from the Southtowns or the Northtowns or the In-Between Towns. Each and every person has something in common with all the others and that is what makes it very special. THE LOVE OF BRIDGE!!

Have a great year and may all your wishes come true.

Betty Metz

Board President

Hall of Fame By the Editors- Dick & Bernie

The editors of the Buff want to honor all those volunteers who have worked creatively over the years to build Unit 116 into the organization it is today.

The editors want to thank all the members who have been elected to the Board of Unit 116 and who have additionally accepted leadership roles on the Board.

We will accept letters nominating the member you, the members of Unit 116, believe have helped to build the Unit into the progressive organization it is.

In 100 words or less, please nominate the person you think has gone beyond the norm in helping the Unit be successful.

The Buff will publish your letter and send a Hall of Fame thank you certificate to that nominee.

We often say, “People like to go to a party but are not so crazy about putting the party together.” This is your chance to thank those people that actually put together the bridge parties we have been enjoying for many decades,

Either e-mail your nominating letter to bernieczar@aol.com or sanbornjoker@aol.com or if you prefer regular mail- send it to the editors at: 2961 Lockport Rd, Sanborn, NY 14132,

This program to thank people who should be thanked will only be successful if you participate. We, the editors, are thanking you in advance for your participation.

Remember, the people selected, that this is a pay-forward

Nominee for Volunteer Award

I believe that Faith Perry exemplifies the ideal character of service to the bridge community. Since I have known Faith, she has been dedicated to enhancing the enjoyment of bridge for all players, especially the newer players. She has had the responsibility of doing partnerships at our Buffalo Regionals, and other tournaments, for the 0-299 players. She works hard at the partnerships to ensure that everyone will have an enjoyable partner to play with. She matches players appropriately by personality and not strictly by accrued master points. Many players have expressed their appreciation at the tremendous job that she does in getting them wonderful partners.

Faith actively promotes bridge to new players, mentors them, and encourages them to play in clubs and tournament events. Faith has a great sense of humor and is always in good spirits

Franklin Kidd

Nominee for Volunteer Award

I nominate Judie Bailey for Unit 116 Volunteer Hall of Fame.

Judie has provided substantial accomplishments in Unit Communications;- was a driving force in the 2008 Directory and the updated 2010 Directory. Helped encouraged the professional Unit web site by Dian Petrov.

She was Vice President and President of the Board. Judie sent out e-Buff to 250+ unit members and also helped to make our unit games and sectionals a success.

Judie deserves this award for giving beyond the norm as a Volunteer.

Sue Neubecker

Nominee for Volunteer Award – In Memorium

I would like to nominate Alice Lind for Unit 116's Hall of Fame.

She was a tireless worker for the betterment of bridge in the area. She was Chairperson of the 1982 NABC in Niagara Falls and Co-Chair of the 1988 NABC in Buffalo. In both of these positions, she did a wonderful job promoting bridge in our area and giving us national exposure.

She was a wonder partner and a formidable opponent. She was a true lady both at and away from the table.

Stress

By Dick Czarnecki

A recent internet survey indicated that the ten fields in which full-time workers have the highest stress levels and are most likely to report a major depression in a given year are:

- ✓ Nursing home/child care workers
- ✓ Food service staff
- ✓ Social workers Health care workers – doctors, nurses, therapists, etc.
- ✓ Artists, entertainers, writers
- ✓ Teachers
- ✓ Administrative support staff
- ✓ Financial advisors and accountants
- ✓ Sales people

If I were to take a survey of the people playing in the various clubs in Western New York, I bet we would find several people who are working in these occupations.

What is interesting about that is full contact duplicate bridge is a stressful activity in itself. It is said that a three-hour session of bridge can be draining to a player as the same number of hours of surgery by one of those doctors on the list. So why would people whose life is already stressful want to play a game that provides an extra helping of stress?

If I were to analyze this I would say the game is played in a party setting, often with food and drink provided. Club managers provide partnerships and the clubs offer beginning lessons to this most exciting of all games. So it's easy to attend these card parties and enjoy time off from the more stressful aspects of your life.

Eventually you will experience enough of the game to snatch the pebble from the masters hand and go from grasshopper to black belt or life master's status. During that process, you experience the joys of victory and the agonies of defeat. But the joys of victory are so addicting that regardless of the stress, you keep coming back.

The stress generated by bridge appears to cancel out the stress that's waiting for you in your day-to-day life. It's like white noise that eradicates daily annoyances. But those are only my educated guesses. If you have a better analysis, I'd love to hear from you. I'll print your insights under your byline.

Leslie Shafer's Bridge Humor

New Words added to bridge vocabulary. Can you match them with the correct definitions?

- | | | | |
|----|----------------|---|---|
| 1. | Brainstorming | A | When someone yells or drops something during a game and other players' heads pop up to see what's going on. |
| 2. | Seagull Player | B | That minuscule fraction of time after playing from dummy in which you realize that you've just made a BIG mistake |
| 3. | Prairie | C | Sitting around after the game, |

- Dogging discussing why your brilliant bid or play failed, and who was responsible
- 4 Stress Puppy D A new player at your regular game who drops in, makes a lot of noise, craps on everything, and then leaves
- 5 Onosecond E A person who seems to thrive on being stressed out by every bid and whiny every time they go down.

Most games are won or lost in the trenches. EW players at a recent Bridge Club of Buffalo Tuesday afternoon game could not stay out of game. Here's a possible auction that could have landed them in a safe part score.

1♦	P	1♥	1♠
2♥ ¹	3♠ ²	all pass

- S's response may be an underbid. If someone upgraded to 3♥s I would understand. W will bid 3♠s regardless. E should pass 3♠s. His partner is a passed hand. Almost an opening opposite almost an opening bid is almost a game ... but not quite.
